DAVID B. MARZO

Dr. David B. Marzo, a member of the Senior Executive Service, is the Associate Deputy Assistant Secretary for Cost and Economics, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Financial Management and Comptroller, Washington, D.C. Dr. Marzo is responsible for supporting the direction of all Air Force cost and economic analysis programs.

Dr. Marzo retired from active duty Air Force in January 2009 after more than twenty years of service. In his military career, he initially served as an acquisition program manager and then transitioned into the Acquisition Financial Management Career field in 1996. His financial management assignments included serving as a cost analyst at the Air Force Cost Analysis Agency; the senior military economist for the Air Force Cost and Economics Division; the Comptroller at Little Rock Air Force; and the Aircraft Procurement Appropriation Manager for Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Air Force, Budget.

Upon retirement from the military, Dr. Marzo served as a Senior Operations Research Analyst for the Office of the Secretary of Defense, Cost Assessment and Program Evaluation, where he was the Department's lead cost analyst for many major acquisition programs including the F-35, KC-46A, and Air Force One. Prior to Dr. Marzo's placement as SES, he served as the Assistant Chief of Staff (G-8) at Marine Corps Base Quantico, where he led the management and execution of the installation's operating budget exceeding $200 million annually.
